The independence property and finitary analogues

Michael C. Laskowski

Department of Mathematics, Univ. of Maryland
College Park, MD 20742
mcl@math.umd.edu

This talk will survey known results about the independence property of families of sets. We discuss both what can be said in full generality and when the sets form a uniformly definable family.