Goldbach Conjecture for Polynomials

Harold Polo
UC Irvine

Abstract

In this talk we explore analogues of the Goldbach conjecture for classes of polynomials. In particular, we show that every polynomial with positive integer coefficients can be written as the sum of two irreducibles. This talk is based on joint works with Nathan Kaplan and Sophia Liao.