

The world of compact non-Lie group actions
Robert Edwards

Abstract: Compact non-Lie topological groups, such as the p-adic integer group or any solenoid group, serve as a fascinating bridge between smooth topology and point-set topology. This talk will describe some of the interesting examples and issues, and what has been learned in recent years.