

Convergence of Formal Maps

Bernhard Lamel
University of Vienna

Abstract

I am going to talk about a recent convergence result joint with Nordine Mir, in which we established very general conditions under which convergence of formal maps can be proved. Applications include the convergence of maps into targets without analytic discs inside and convergence of formal transversal maps between Levi-nondegenerate hypersurfaces under optimal signature assumptions.