- Scotty is one of the greatest TAs that I happened to have during my rather short experience at UCSD. Scotty's discussions felt fun, engaging, and motivating. The tone of the class is kind of playful while completely professional and organized. Even with strange and novel things such as online classes, Scotty managed to keep the students interactive and engaged.
I honestly do not know what he can improve about his way of teaching. I suppose the only thing would be to kind of force interaction. While Scotty consistently asked to react during the discussion, it felt that other students were not participating at all.
I would suggest making the discussions be graded like a 1% of the class, which, while not a lot will give the TA the power to ask students to interact more.
Other than that, I have no critical opinions or suggestions for Scotty. The discussions were great, and they are the only thing that helped me completely understand the material of the course. I cannot appreciate him enough.
- Very helpful as he explains everything thoroughly
